We Embrace Diversity

Our staff values and respects all individuals. We do not discriminate based on: age, sex, religion, sexual orientation (including lesbian, gay, bisexual), gender identity or expression (including transgender and intersex), culture, education, race, ethnicity, language, former incarceration, marital, economic or housing status, physical or mental disability, or any other basis prohibited by federal, state or local law.

For additional information on our Program's non-discrimination policies and complaint procedures please ask to speak to our Program Manager or Director.
