

Stakeholder Sharing

MHSA Consolidated Planning Advisory Workgroup (CPAW) November 4, 2021 Meeting

Highlights of news to share and areas discussed at recent Contra Costa Behavioral Health Services (CCBHS) supported stakeholder meetings held in October 2021:

Adult Committee

- Meetings canceled until further notice

Aging and Older Adult Committee (AOA) (October 27th)

- Update will be provided at the CPAW meeting
- The next meeting will be November 24, 2021 from 2:00pm to 3:30pm.

Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) Advisory Board (September 25th)

- Dr. Rhiannon Shires gave a presentation on the impact of the pandemic and advertisement on alcohol abuse entitled “Our New Pandemic”. During the 2020 pandemic, nationwide it was easier to obtain alcohol. Drinking rates particularly among women, African Americans and parents spiked. Nationwide alcohol sales jumped 54%. Every year, alcohol kills more people than other drugs combined. Must make alcohol less attractive, less affordable, less available and need to keep alcohol ads off transportation. Is more widely used among youth than tobacco or cannabis. Time for legislators to regulate exposure, increases taxes and stop issuance of liquor licenses. States do not realize the effects 2020 had on increased alcohol consumption.
- Encouraged viewing the video Support4Recovery
- Pueblos del Sol is still on outbreak status. There is daily testing for clients. Staff are tested once a week. If staff test positive, go home to isolate. If a client tests positive, the client is transported to a hotel for isolation.
- Discussed a Cannabis License application and environmental scan of the proposed business location.
- Discussed grant transition of Support4Recovery to Shelter Inc.
- The most recent meeting of the Alcohol and Other Drugs Advisory Board was held on October 24th. Summary will be provided next month. - We received updates regarding the Community Crisis Hub (Miles Hall Community Crisis Hub) which will be run under the A3 (Anyone, Anytime, Anyplace) Program and learned that we are now in the piloting phase which is being housed in Behavioral Health Services Admin for the time being. This is taking place three days a week for three hours on each of those three days, with a focus on telecommunication, dispatch and triage methodologies.
- We were informed that although we need and hope for a physical location to house the call center, there is no word as for now.
- There was a discussion regarding the Miller Wellness Center Behavioral Health remodel, although we are excited for the new Children’s Crisis Stabilization Unit, there are concerns that the Miller Wellness Center is providing much needed services for adults and there is a hope that the remodeling doesn't bring those services to an end for any period of time. It was suggested that we find another place to provide said services during the remodeling process.

- We received an update on Contra Costa Regional Medical Center/Psychiatric Emergency Services (CCRMC/PES) Visitation Guidelines during COVID-19: Must show proof of vaccination or a negative COVID test from within the last 72 hours and must call in advance to set it up.

Contra Costa Continuum of Care

Homelessness Awareness Month Toolkit 2021

Letter from the Chair

The Contra Costa Council on Homelessness is happy to recognize November as Homelessness Awareness Month! This special month provides inspiration and opportunities to reflect on important community work being done to address homelessness, learn how to engage and hear stories of hope, resilience and compassion from community members impacted by this issue. Throughout the month of November, we hope you will take time to learn, engage and celebrate and utilize this toolkit to spread awareness.

This toolkit is divided into three sections:

In our LEARN section, you will find data about homelessness in Contra Costa, an overview of our homeless Continuum of Care (CoC) and available services as well as insights into the innovative approaches and pivots made during the COVID19 pandemic.

In our ENGAGE section, you will find events, volunteer and donation opportunities and advocacy tools. Opportunities to create change abound!

The toolkit concludes (truly saving the best for last) with the CELEBRATE section. We highlight our new short video “H.O.P.E.- Hearing Other People's Experiences”, “The Journal”, a series of zines created by residents of our Project Room Key program, and end with an Awards section filled with rich details of the spirit and incredible work of individuals and organizations impacted by and addressing homelessness in Contra Costa.

Homeless Awareness Month is an effort of collaboration and requires engagement. This toolkit can act as a resource for those who want to learn more, do more, and share more. We hope you will help us to spread the word!

Services Available

From CALL-CARE-CORE, people seeking homeless services may be connected to a variety of available resources that best meet their needs.

The general categories of resources people may be connected to are:

Prevention & Diversion
Temporary Shelter
Supportive Services
Supportive Housing

Because our homeless system of care does not have enough capacity to meet the needs of every person seeking services, instead of "first come, first serve", some resources are distributed through a process called Coordinated Entry that you will learn about on the next page.

Coordinated Entry

Contra Costa uses Coordinated Entry to quickly connect individuals and families to available and appropriate housing and services.

The purpose of a Coordinated Entry System is to ensure that all people experiencing a housing crisis:

- have fair and equal access to resources; and
- are quickly identified, assessed for, and connected to housing and homeless services based on their strengths and needs.

Coordinated Entry:

- uses standardized tools and practices;
- incorporates a system-wide Housing First (no barriers to entry) approach; and
- in an environment of scarce resources, coordinates housing support so that those with the most severe service needs are prioritized.

For more information about Coordinated Entry in Contra Costa County, go to:
<https://cchealth.org/h3/coc/#CES>

COVID-19: Impact

The CoC continues to support providers, staff, and consumers through the COVID-19 pandemic. CoC partners are providing guidance, COVID-19 testing, vaccines, and implementing strategies to transition individuals in Project Room Key hotel rooms into permanent housing.

For more information about COVID-19 go to <https://www.coronavirus.cchealth.org>.

COVID Testing

Between January and September 2021, our community conducted tests for COVID-19 for people experiencing homelessness in Contra Costa.

18,456

COVID Cases

Between January and September 2021, people experiencing homelessness in Contra Costa tested positive for COVID-19.

698

COVID Vaccination

Between January and September 2021, our community provided vaccine doses to people experiencing homelessness in Contra Costa.

8,050

COVID-19: New Resources

PROJECT ROOM KEY (PRK)

In April 2020, the state launched Project Room Key (PRK) to help communities move people experiencing homelessness from shelters to hotels, to reduce the spread of COVID-19. Contra Costa quickly leased up 5 hotels and began moving people from shelters. Once the sheltered population was moved, additional rooms were prioritized for people experiencing unsheltered homelessness deemed most at risk of contracting or vulnerable to complications from COVID-19.

During the course of 2021, two of the hotels were closed as our Concord and Respite Shelters reopened and other shelters began to accept more residents. Before the hotel closures, the homeless system of care began to speed up housing placements for people in Project Room Key to make sure no one would be unsheltered or unhoused by the time the two hotel programs closed.

As part of that process, the community prioritized COVID-19 Project Room Key residents for 100 Mainstream Vouchers from the Housing Authority of the County of Contra Costa. Roughly $3 million in Rapid Rehousing resources were also dedicated to this population.

As 2021 comes to a close, we still have two hotels in operation, with plans to continue one of those programs through December 2021 and the other through June 2022.

COVID-19: New Resources

EAST COUNTY INTERIM HOUSING PROJECT (ECHIP)

The Motel 6 in Pittsburg, purchased with state of California Homekey funds awarded to the county, is being remodelled and will open this winter as the East County Interim Housing Program (ECHIP), with Bay Area Community Services (BACS) contracted as the service provider.

The site has:

- 172 rooms (non-congregate);
- 24/7 Residential Counselor team;
- Care Coordinators;
- Employment Coordinators;
- Benefits linkages and advocacy;
- On-site mental health services; and
- Community based Housing Locators

Referrals to ECHIP are made by CORE Outreach teams. Connect to CORE by calling 211.

The Fall forum will focus on mental health issues and services available to homeless and at-risk individuals and will kickoff with a video providing background on the Continuum of Care available to displaced people in Walnut Creek.

Volunteers are asked to commit to one afternoon per week, Monday through Thursday, for the rest of the school year. Adults and high school sophomores through seniors are encouraged to volunteer their time.
- Friday Fun Days: Hope Solutions Enrichment Programs at Lakeside Apartments and Los Medanos Village bring fun enrichment activities to the children every Friday from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm, on site. WHAT IS PROPER CLOTHING FOR PEH ON THE STREET

These days most people experience homelessness without shelter. They are forced to improvise or construct shelter from wind and rain, snow and moisture. If they can't make a cover of some sort then they may just be standing in the rain or sitting in the rain trying to not move so the wetness doesn't rub against them and chill them to the bone.

When the weather turns wet and windy the homeless try to find places they can "hangout" and stay dry. Throughout their day this involves migrating from a coffee shop to a library to a stoop of a dumpster area back to a coffee shop until they wear out their welcome and get told to leave. Then they head out into the cold, wet world. They get wet and then cold and then have nothing to warm them up. They stay like that until the rain clears. As this happens the skies clear and the cold returns. None of this helps this person dry out or get warm. Their skin is pruning and their feet are absolutely frozen. How would you feel to start your day off like this? How would your demeanor and attitude be? How would you cope day in and day out with this?

What if there were clothes that would help you manage better? What if the homeless on the street had more than cotton hoodies and down jackets to wear?

GOOD NEWS!!!

The clothing that we use for hiking, winter sports, backpacking, snowboarding and anything we do outdoors is the perfect match for a homeless person.

WHY?

Because it is made from synthetic materials that absorb little to no moisture, stay warm when they are wet, and they work to keep you dry and keep the wind off of your skin.

Anything made of synthetic materials like fleece, polypropylene, nylon, is the type of fabric we are looking for. These qualities are:

Easy wash and rinse

Quick drying

Wind resistant

Water resistant (still keeps wind from blowing through fabric to cool you down)

Easy to pack and manage wrinkles

Generally considered travel clothing so the look is casual/professional

Very durable and tear resistant

WHAT'S WRONG WITH A THICK COTTON HOODIE?

Natural materials like COTTON and WOOL or SILK are not good to use in such extreme exposed situations because they are made up of fibers that are able to absorb water into them which takes away their ability to warm. They also can not dry without significant heat from a machine or many hours or several days in the sun. This means that the clothing will actually make you lose precious heat from your own body instead of insulate you from the cold.

NOTE: WOOL and SILK for 24/7 outdoor use makes these just as bad as COTTON

A QUICK STORY

One winter years ago I went to Squaw Valley to snow camp along Squaw Creek. I was snowshoeing and came to a place where I crossed over a snow bridge. The snow bridge gave way to my weight and I broke through the bridge and fell into 2 feet of ice cold rushing water. With my back pack on I rolled into the water and completely soaked myself.

The time was noon. It was 29 degrees outside with a slight breeze. Windchill was about 24 degrees. I was two hours from my car. What did I do?

Took off all my wet clothes (everything) while standing on a closed cell foam sleeping pad. I rung out my fleece jacket and fleece pants and hat, gloves.

Put on a change of dry base layers and mid layers and socks

Put on my damp jacket and pants

Put on my outer most shell for wind protection

Put on my pack and continued

Within 5 minutes I was too warm. Right where I wanted to be. I adjusted my clothing so I didn't get too hot and 30 minutes later my fleece jacket and pants were bone dry.

If I had been homeless and this happened I would be in a life threatening situation in less than 15 minutes. And over the course of many years, this scenario has happened to me countless times and I'm here to share the story.

SYNTHETIC CLOTHING CAN LITERALLY SAVE A PERSONS
LIFE IF THE CLOTHING GETS SOAKED.

JUST WRING IT OUT AND PUT IT BACK ON.

FINE TUNE YOUR GIVING

The San Francisco bay area is home to many outdoor enthusiasts. Joggers, cyclists, hikers, trail riders, equestrians and sports players all use synthetic clothes for their exploits. Folks who do winter sports like snowboarding and skiing, ice fishing, snow shoeing. All of you are using these materials and you have stuff in the closet that you no longer use. These are all life savers to a homeless person. Look at some of the clothes you have had for years and it still looks good. These are all waiting to be repurposed as "SAFETY CLOTHES" for the homeless.

So, when you think about donating clothes to a shelter please think about your old outdoor clothes and donate those over the cotton clothing.

When you donate your clothes ask if the shelter is separating clothes for people living outside. If they don't please suggest that they do this service for their clients.

If you belong to a club or organization that is involved in outdoor activities, please consider having a clothing drive for old synthetic clothing to be given the homeless.

If your organization helps homeless with resources and support. Consider reorganizing your clothing bank so that those who live on the street can obtain the special clothing they need to support themselves. Have your staff educated on "outfitting" so they can work with and educate their clients.

These small steps will help make life better for a person experiencing homelessness and maybe even save their life.

Any person experiencing poverty who has no access to laundry facilities should consider these clothes as well.

CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS TO CONSIDER

OTHER IDEAS TO STAY WARMER

Any “CLOSED CELL FOAM” material insulates against cold surfaces.

Backpacking and yoga sleeping pads work well. NO AIR MATTS

Cut a foam matt into 14x14 inch pieces to form an insulating butt pad.

A. D.

Nominated by: Larry Wilson

Supervisory District: District 1 (Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, part of Pinole, and the unincorporated communities of Bayview, East Richmond Heights, El Sobrante, Kensington, Montalvin Manor, Tara Hills, North Richmond, and Rollingwood)

Description of nominee's personal accomplishments that reflect resilience and courage: This is one of those stories that has to be told. My client, a mother of two, is employed as an IHSS making minimum wage. She has a history of homelessness going back several years. She was able to secure an apartment for her family in 2019. Hope Solutions assisted with her move-in costs. A. was thankful for her new residence but she hoped for a safer area to raise her two little ones. In 2020, she was able to move to a really nice apartment complex.

Her children are doing really well in school since they have become more stable. She's taking on more clients with her IHSS work and reunited with her husband, which is a plus. Speaking with her recently, she expressed such thankfulness for all the support and resources she received to better the life her family now has.

Carmella Kowall

Nominated by: Ann Lawrence

Supervisory District: District 2 (San Ramon, Danville, Alamo, Lafayette, Moraga, Orinda, Canyon, Rossmoor, Parkmead, Saranap and a portion of Walnut Creek))

Description of nominee's personal accomplishments that reflect resilience and courage: Carmella Kowall and her children, G. and J. Kowall were clients at Winter Nights in 2014/2015, from October through May. Carmella describes a divorce and absent father leading to serious financial stress. She worked full time but the bills still piled up and rent became impossible. They were ultimately evicted. With an eviction and unpaid rent on her record, no one would rent to her. For 2 ½ years she continued to work full time, parent her kids, while living in various motels that could cost her over $3,000 per month. In 2014, at a motel, Carmella met a father and his 2 young sons who were also homeless. He was interviewing with Winter Nights and left to join the program. After arriving, he called Carmella, leaving messages saying “You have to come here. This is just what you need”. She says it took her a few more days to finally agree to talk to Bill. It changed her life and the lives of her children.

At the time J. was in 7th grade, G. was a sophomore in high school and Carmella was employed full time at Kinder's.

“I never saw it as a free ride. I thought of it as holding me up so that I could take care of my business. A stepping stone. It gave me time to do the things I needed to do to make our lives better. I still worked full time, and the money I saved on motel bills and food let me pay-off my bills, including all the back-rent. The kids focused on school. I focused on working and finding us a home. We were ready to start again.” - Carmella

Since leaving Winter Nights in the spring of 2015 a lot has happened. A rental wasn't immediately available because of the eviction on her record, so it was back to a motel for a bit.

The owner of the motel got to know Carmella and the kids, and was really impressed with them and their story. When an apartment became available in a building he owned, he offered to rent to them regardless of the past eviction. They have been there ever since.

Carmella moved on from her long-time job at Kinder's in 2017 and joined Toyota Walnut Creek, where she was promoted to Concierge Manager in 2019 (the free pickup and delivery service for customers). She is working to grow the service in a time of COVID contact-free protocols. She now manages 400 customer trips a month. J.J. graduated from high school in 2020 and is employed full time at a local electrical supply company. Gloria graduated from high school in June 2017, and went on to California State University, Monterey Bay. She received multiple scholarships her senior year and also received one through CSUMB. In May 2021 she graduated Cum Laude with her B.S. in Biology, with a concentration in Evolution, Ecology and Organismal Biology in Science. For something entirely different, and 2700 miles away, Gloria enlisted in the US Army. She has completed Basic Training and is now at Fort Eustis, Virginia training to repair the CH-47 Chinook helicopter.

In July 2020, when Winter Nights Family Shelter, Inc became an independent nonprofit, we began forming a Board of Directors. High on our list of candidates were Winter Nights alumni; individuals who knew the program from the inside and could speak for the clients. Carmella was among almost 20 men and women with various skills who were nominated. In December 2020 she was officially elected to the board of Winter Nights, along with five other community members. Her voice is sought and heard in all aspects of board responsibilities.

Thank you, Carmella, for giving your time and talent in support of the future of Winter Nights.

When I asked Carmella if I could nominate her she said (emailed)

"Can I just say wow!! I am so honored that you would like to nominate me!! I am so floored and humbled. Thank you! Love my Winter Night's family!! Homelessness is not the end of the world, it's the beginning of a new one. It's your choice what you do with it."

Charlie, Leslie, Tommy, Scott, Jon, Pam, and Kevin From Trinity Center

Nominated by: Leslie Gleason

Supervisory District: District 4 (Clayton, Concord, Pleasant Hill, part of Walnut Creek, and the unincorporated Contra Costa Centre)

Description of nominee's personal accomplishments that reflect resilience and courage: When a dedicated leader joins forces with people experiencing homelessness and community supporters, what do you get? Trinity Center, a place of safety where “everybody knows your name” and works together to make sure people living unhoused can access basic resources, build community, and move forward. We proudly nominate our seven (7) staff who have lived experience of homelessness and/or substance use disorders and who bring their talents and teamwork daily in service of others. Because of them, and others who have been part of our history, Trinity Center can keep the doors to opportunity open for others facing or at risk of homelessness. Not only do they keep the Center operating, and support members who are facing the daily challenges they have shared, they serve as role models for persons seeking housing, financial stability, and recovery.

Individually and collectively, their accomplishments have been remarkable—overcoming substance use disorders, pursuing education, raising families, regaining housing, maintaining employment—demonstrating strength, courage, resilience and hopefulness that quietly says “you can do it too!” For believing in themselves, each other, and coming together to create a community that truly cares about persons living unhoused, we recognize and commend Charlie, Leslie, Tommy, Scott, Jon, Pam, and Kevin for “Thriving in the Face of Homelessness!”

Colin Jack Fliehmman

Nominated by: Michele Perry

J. G.

Nominated by: Michelle Milam

Supervisory District: District 1 (Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, part of Pinole, and the unincorporated communities of Bayview, East Richmond Heights, El Sobrante, Kensington, Montalvin Manor, Tara Hills, North Richmond, and Rollingwood)

Description of nominee's personal accomplishments that reflect resilience and courage: J.G., is nothing if not a true representative of the American Dream. The American Dream which for many is very difficult to achieve. I met J. when he was a young person on a "Shop With A Cop" excursion. J. was always friendly, hard working and willing to learn and help others. That impressed me, to have that level of maturity at such a young age. J., at the young age of 17, found himself without housing options. He was working as a volunteer at Richmond PAL, and later was employed there.

Eventually with the help and support of the community he was able to find a safe place to stay at a transitional facility for teens, and later at a young adult facility which helped get J. into his own apartment. J., through all of this, vowed to finish school and make everyone proud of him. He graduated from high school in Richmond, and later enrolled in some of the programs offered to him at the transitional program. J. took an interest in culinary training, and decided last year to venture out on his own and start his own small business selling some of his culinary cultural dishes. He'd often take public transportation to deliver them. This was only ONE business. In addition he began painting houses, and doing home repairs and designing T-shirts for sale. It is very rare to see adults with that kind of drive. Though J. still has many challenges that he faces, I cannot think of someone who deserves this more, or has more heart to overcome them.

My life challenges, by J.

"I was in a homeless shelter in Oakland CA. For a long time I lived with my parents which were not easy. There was a lot was going on which I did not understand at all until I got older. In 2003 my mother and father divorced each other which impacted my brother and I and our childhood. It hard for me express the pain.

But as I am getting older I am starting to understand a lot of things about life. I have learned to take challenges and do something better in life. I learned that I have to keep my head up no matter what the situation is so it can make me stronger in an lot of areas. Negative energy can turn into something positive. I'm very good at seeing the positive in every bad thing. I won't let anything stop me from reaching my goals in life including my past.

Going to college is a major step for me. Some people will not take that step in life to move on to something different in life. I am a very outgoing young man and have a heart for people and I am also an entrepreneur and I'm very good at making businesses. That is my specialty and hobby. At the age of 16, I ran my own car wash in the summer and people had people working for me. I did it again at age 17.

I am very good with managing people and running a business. I am also starting up a clothing line of my own. I plan on launching the clothing line, and adding a painting business to my list of projects. I want the best for my future I feel like college will do that for me. My goals are to own a lot of businesses and have my own company and build it under my family name. People deal with a lot in their life and cannot follow through with their goals because they deal with a lot of madness, destruction, and trauma.

From 1st grade to 5th grade I was in a behavioral private school. I did not have the best education at a young age but that does not stop me from trying to learn and understand but my childhood was rough. But I learn no matter what you are going through do not let nothing stop you from reaching your goal at all.

I achieve my goals by doing the unexpected. I will use my education to give the community hope and understanding so they know they can do anything they put their mind to. All a person needs to do is be themselves and do not let people talk them down from doing anything they want to do with their life.

At the end of the day I hold my head high no matter my situation. I've been in the street, sleeping in cars, park benches, and football fields but through all of that I don't let anything stop me. I keep going and I take the pain and make myself stronger. What is making me pursue my education is I want to show people that dreams can come true.

I want to go to an HBCU and learn more about my culture and where my people come from, and/or attend barbering college. People look up to me and I have a lot of people want to see me succeed. I feel like it will be a good experience for me and see something different. I am about to rise to the top and make my plans happen and set things in motion. I plan to teach other people how to do the same as me, including young people.

Right now I am helping this young man that is thirteen start up his own clothing line. I love helping people and bringing them together. So that way these students of mine that I help can help others from what they learned being around me. The main point of going to college is to learn and to come back and teach my community and be a good role model to everybody. I really care about giving back to my community so they can be educated and have a mindset like I have to do better and like and make something of themselves.

People often doubt themselves about how they are not going to make it because the environment in Richmond. I would like to show them that anything is possible and I want to show people that they do not have to make their self a statistic in Richmond I want them to be better than that."

She has always had a fighting spirit and a love for others - her voice is so needed for change! Her resilience shouldn't have been needed - she should have been protected from all that she has endured and yet she is thriving and not only that but living with purpose!

One of my favorite posts from her social media was one that stated, "Reminder: If serving is beneath you, leading is beyond you." And that is a beautiful example of who she is.

Loren Dalbert

Nominated by: Loren Dalbert

Supervisory District: They serve the entire county

Description of nominee's personal accomplishments that reflect resilience and courage: Loren shines in so many ways:

1. His ability to apply himself and learn about something new (such as the technology tools we use – Trello and Miro).
2. His ability to adapt to an entirely new environment (public service, virtual work).
3. Working with a new (cross-functional) team and learning about the members of the team (workforce services and homeless services, plus the two coaches and white paper writer who served as meeting support early on).
4. His enthusiastic dedication to the WAF/HCD project (Workforce Accelerator Fund/Human-Centered Design) and all the research it entails.

But mostly, his courage is the most prominent way he shines because it allows him to do all the rest. Loren has been through a lot in his life, but he dares to keep swimming forward into the unknown, even when things are scary, and he is facing something he has never done before, and he is not sure he can do it. His open-mindedness is the thing that makes him change his own “Why?” into a “Why not?” Whether he realizes it or not, he has inspired us all with his leadership on the project and his mastery over himself. Those comments were from my annual performance review.

Continued Success Program, Winter Nights Family Shelter, Inc.

Contact: Bill Shaw

Nominated by: Jo Kerner

Supervisory District: They serve the entire county.

Description of the innovative initiative/project/program: Winter Nights has operated a family shelter in Contra Costa County since 2004. Now in our 18th season, over 380 families with minor children have been served and the program has expanded to include a Safe Parking program for families and individuals living in their cars. In early 2020 we planned a pilot program to stay in touch with families from prior years, after they were housed. We called it Continued Success and originally budgeted $450 for simple outreach.

The Covid-19 pandemic changed all of this. Keeping former clients housed became a major priority. At Winter Nights, our clients and alumni live near or below the poverty line and these folks have been hit hard. They are often one paycheck away from returning to homelessness, pandemic or not. We expanded our effort from simple follow-up to a formal program to contact alumni, assess their vulnerabilities, provide referrals, and if needed provide financial support for rent, car repair, or other expenses that threatened their ability to stay in their home. This program seeks to prevent that from happening. Since July 1, 2020, we have contacted 40 alumni families and have helped 9 of them with specific needs (23%).

Description of how the innovative initiative/project/program impacts the lives of people experiencing homelessness: We have spent $5450 in direct payments for rent, keeping two families from losing their apartments, and $400 in Target and Gasoline gift cards to others. $5850 in total. We have also helped families receive needed furnishings for their apartments, clothing for newborns and growing children, and access to food and baby supplies through agencies we work with.

Here is the story of one family, as told in our Good News letter:

September 2020 While reaching out to stay in touch, a wife and mother of two told program manager, Teri Lundvall, that when she didn't feel well, she went to get tested for Covid-19. (False alarm- it was negative. Yay!) While she waited for results, her employer took her off the work schedule completely, and did not reinstate her. At the same time, her husband's work hours, at the same firm, were reduced to one day a week. What a terrible situation for a family of four.

We are glad to report that both parents have since found new jobs and are fully employed. But, while she was sheltered, waiting for her test results, and he was working one day a week and then both were looking for new jobs, the rent was due, and then overdue. Their landlord served them the California "3-day Notice to Pay Rent or Quit", the first step in the eviction process.

Well, that is what Continued Success is for: to help keep alumni families housed, rather than repeat the cycle of homelessness. After verifying the eviction notice, our Continued Success team went to work, and so did they. Mom and Dad contacted all the resources we suggested but were repeatedly told that the agency was out of funding. So, Winter Nights' Continued Success offered to pay their back rent, and the current month's rent too, giving them breathing room they needed. They are so very, very grateful. When Mom came to pick up the rent check, with one of her sons, there were tears all around.

Description of what makes initiative/project/program innovative: Prior to the American Rescue Plan in 2020 and the Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP), a small non-profit like Winter Nights was able to assess the vulnerability of its former clients and offer assistance just by starting with a small fund for follow-up support. The regular email outreach is designed to acknowledge the difficulties of staying housed these days and provide a source for guidance that is known and trusted by those who receive the monthly outreach emails. The name of the program, Continued Success, honors the achievements of formerly homeless families.

A note from a Continued Success father of four, after a visit from Winter Nights staff.

"Hi Bill, Teri and Kathleen,

Thank you so, so, so much for loving on us. I got so emotional, at work, when my wife sent me the pic of y'all at our place Hugs and kisses to you guys. You took us in when family kicked us out. Till this day they haven't visited us, yet y'all have come to see us. My heart overflows with thanksgiving to God for you all. God bless each of you!!!"

Holistic Intervention Partnership program (HIP)

Contact: Bertha Lopez, Hume Center

Nominated by: Chris Celio, PsyD

Supervisory District: They serve the entire county.

Description of the innovative initiative/project/program: The Holistic Intervention Partnership program (HIP) is a collaboration between Contra Costa County Health, Housing, and Homeless Services (H3) and the Contra Costa County Public Defender's Office. H3 and the Public Defender's Office have brought together an impactful team of agencies in this project, including The Hume Center, Bay Area Legal Aid, Contra Costa County Office of Re-entry and Justice, Cal State University Long Beach, Rubicon, and Uptrust.

The HIP program serves Contra Costa County, justice-impacted residents and their families with housing support services and resources in Contra Costa County. The aim of the project is to help these residents successfully resolve their justice-related issues while attaining or maintaining housing for them and their household. The project includes legal advocacy, housing support, rapid resolution, community linkage, mediation, employment support and training, and appointment and court date reminders and linkage. Amazingly, the partners were able to put the distractions of the early pandemic aside and start up the project collaboratively. The project started July 1, 2020 for its first year and has been renewed for a second year!

This project is a vast one, with different goals and activities for each of the partners. I am nominating the entire HIP project and all of the partners. In this application though, I can only speak to Hume's impact and I hope that other partners, if this project is considered, can add in their impact statements. For Hume Center, we were contracted to work with 65 clients a year. So far, we have worked with 80 clients to assist with their housing. Our work with each client has varied, but we are most excited about having helped one-third of those households achieve permanent housing!

Description of how the innovative initiative/project/program impacts the lives of people experiencing homelessness: This project has had a vast impact and has had four main stakeholder groups: justice involved individuals, their families, the justice system, and the Continuum of Care.

Justice-Involved Individuals: When you're facing the weight of the justice system, it can be an overwhelming and heavy lift to get through it. Small issues can easily snowball into large and dreadful issues for many reasons, including: not knowing how to navigate the justice system; missing court dates due to lack of housing, transportation, reminders, etc; not having the resources to assemble an advocacy and support team; not having stable housing from which to be able to prepare, attend, and resolve legal issues; not being able to afford missing work to attend to the preparation or court dates successfully; not knowing what resources are available to help you or how to access them; and having co-occurring stressors, employment, mental health, substance use, housing, or other difficulties that make it impossible to complete your court or other legal requirements successfully so that you can move beyond this justice issue. It can feel like the legal system is not just a snowball that builds slowly over time, but that it is already a boulder perched on a cliff that is ready to fall down toward you at the slightest touch. This population is the main stakeholder of this project.

The second stakeholder group of this project is the family and other household members of the justice-involved person. They are often negatively impacted greatly by their loved one's participation in the justice system. With HIP's support to resolve the justice system issue and to equip the household with appropriate and sustainable housing and employment, the whole household benefits! Not only is the household's entry into homeless prevented, but the stigma of being justice-involved is resolved and the dignity of appropriate housing and employment can lead to great improvements in their mental health and functioning.

The third stakeholder group of this project is the justice system itself. Persons who do not resolve legal matters are kept within the legal system, with additional court appointments, public defender assignments, and other resources while they remain in the justice system. Efficiently resolving their legal issue through a concerted effort to help through the arduous process results in benefits for the entire legal system. As this project helps its clients resolve their issues, the limited resources of the justice system are freed up to assist others to achieve swift and supported resolutions of their case.

And lastly, the limited resources of the entire Continuum of Care benefit from a successful project such as this one. With these individuals connected to a full suite of resources and supported to resolve their legal, housing, and employment issues, that leaves other resources available to support the others who are experiencing housing disruption, eviction, or homelessness.

Description of what makes initiative/project/program innovative: What makes this project unique and impactful is the collaboration between all of the partners and the easy and seamless manner in which clients gain access to the full suite of services and agencies. People and their families who are justice-involved are, in general, multi-stressed. The justice system can be arduous to navigate, especially when many other life stressors are being experienced concurrently and the person and their family are trying to maintain their income and household at the same time.

This project takes existing services and brings them together for easy access and a more impactful and lasting outcome. The partnership is summarized below: H3 and Hume Center work together to evaluate the housing needs and which strategies to use to help the person leave homelessness, maintain housing, or attain more healthy or sustainable housing. H3's interventions include linking them to HDAP and General Assistance, CORE Homeless Outreach, a homeless shelter, or entry into the Coordinated Entry System. When appropriate, they refer the person to Hume Center's Rapid Resolution Program to prevent homelessness. Hume provides short-term case management, advocacy, housing support services, mediation, rapid resolution, and linkages throughout the Continuum of Care. They assist individuals with Whole Person Care and wrap-around-services, including behavioral health. Bay Area Legal Aid provides legal services and advocacy outside of what is needed in their criminal case, including advocacy related to areas like child support, divorces/separations, financial issues, landlord/tenant issues, evictions, and restraining orders. Rubicon provides employment coaching, training, and linkage to support the person sustain their gains made in the program and open more housing opportunities to them. CCC Office of Re-Entry and Justice provides the legal services that have to do with their legal case that need additional services outside of what the Public Defenders' Office provides, e.g. helping them get their driver's license back CSU Long Beach is the research partner and the glue that pieces together and facilitate interagency and stakeholder communication. Uptrust is creating an app that will link the clients of the program with their provider team and be a centralized place for court date, appointment, and documentation information and reminders. It's obvious why this program has been so impactful. With so many talented agencies all working together for these individuals and their families, successful navigation of the legal system and positive and sustainable housing outcomes are easily enabled. Compare that to the ineffective status quo, where justice-involved individuals have to find and navigate complex and unknown community resources all while going through a very stressful experience, and the positive impacts of the HIP program are no surprise at all.

Hume Center would like to appreciate H3 and the Public Defender's Office for convening this group of agencies and doing the hard work to stand up a collaborative project with so many pieces. it was a big lift but the reward for the residents of Contra Costa have been numerous! Thank you H3 for always being a great partner and driver of innovation.

Homeless Action Coalition

Contact: Noralea Gipner

Nominated by: Deborah White

Supervisory District: District 5 (Hercules, Martinez, Pittsburg, portions of Pinole and Antioch, and unincorporated communities of Alhambra Valley, Bay Point, Briones, Rodeo, Pacheco, Crockett, Tormey, Port Costa, Mt. View, Vine Hill, Reliez Valley, and Clyde)

Description of the innovative initiative/project/program: The Homeless Action Coalition (HAC) is a new nonprofit organization led by former Martinez City Councilmember Noralea Gipner. It is a coalition of community and faith leaders who have joined together to address the needs of the unhoused residents of Martinez residents.

With more than 150 unhoused residents living in encampments, embankments and parking lots, Martinez has one of the highest per capita homelessness rates in Contra Costa County. With such great need, Martinez leaders were compelled to act.

Over the past year, community groups and the Martinez Homelessness Task Force have partnered to address urgent needs, most recently operating a weekly homeless service center at the Martinez Waterfront Park. There, the Bay Church and other faith partners offered showers, laundry service and toiletries. The Martinez Police Department and Contra Costa C.O.R.E. connected people to shelters and other public resources, while Contra Costa Health Services provided a free mobile clinic. Community volunteers offered haircuts and organized a clothing exchange program. Prior to COVID-19, 30-40 individuals participated in these services every week. Moving forward, the Homeless Action Coalition will serve as a hub for these resources, coordinating strategy and funding within Martinez and its adjacent communities.

Description of how the innovative initiative/project/program impacts the lives of people experiencing homelessness: The Homeless Action Coalition provides multiple needed services for unhoused individuals in Martinez, including temporary housing, clothing, showers, restroom facilities and medical care. Their actions have assisted fully 75% of Martinez's unhoused individuals. Of particular importance, The HAC was able to move quickly to find, renovate, and move people into a safe shelter for individuals during the COVID pandemic. Individuals there were regularly tested and could quarantine safely, preventing the spread of COVID in Martinez and beyond.

Description of what makes initiative/project/program innovative: The Homeless Action Coalition is a grassroots organization that was born out of one city official's frustration with a system that made it difficult for people to work together to confront an obvious concern. Starting with faith organizations who were motivated to assist but had no venue to pool resources and then using her knowledge of the system to enlist the assistance of police and medical services to expand the work. It has grown quickly and was in a position to begin collecting donations and further expanding services immediately upon becoming a 501c (3) organization. One of the other important facets of HAC is its dedication to self-governance by the individuals served, encouraging "self confidence, sense of community, and security. "

I couldn't decide whether to nominate Noralea Gipner as an individual or Homeless Action Coalition as an organization. Both are very deserving of the award. They have done more to assist the unhoused population of Martinez in two years than has been done in a decade.

S.H.A.R.E. Community

Contact: Ricka Davis-Sheard

Nominated by: Patrice Guillory

Supervisory District: District 5 (Hercules, Martinez, Pittsburg, portions of Pinole and Antioch, and unincorporated communities of Alhambra Valley, Bay Point, Briones, Rodeo, Pacheco, Crockett, Tormey, Port Costa, Mt. View, Vine Hill, Reliez Valley, and Clyde)

Description of the innovative initiative/project/program: As of September 29, 2021, it has been a year since S.H.A.R.E. started providing consistent mobile showers in a state of the art, constantly fully-sanitized trailer. The trailer is ADA compliant and can provide up to 25 hot showers per session. S.H.A.R.E. provides clean clothing and hygiene packages including: soap, razors, toothbrush, toothpaste, lotion, shampoo, conditioner, feminine products, hair brushes and other toiletries.

S.H.A.R.E. also connects guests to other on-site personal grooming services, gives new/gently used clothing according to the weather, provides device charging stations, and free meals. S.H.A.R.E. has provided just under 1,000 showers so far! Guests have many positive things to say about having consistent place to shower.

"You know, ever since I've been coming to shower here, I feel like a person again. I didn't feel like that before. Thank you."

"When I shower here, I feel loved AND clean. I feel a part of society again -- I'm ready to take on the day!"

Description of how the innovative initiative/project/program impacts the lives of people experiencing homelessness: S.H.A.R.E. understands showers and access to hygiene will not alone solve the homeless crisis. However, given a chance to restore dignity, many of the guests have managed to acquire jobs, build self-confidence, combat depression, and actively participate in quelling the spread of COVID-19. Nearly 40% of the guests report they believe access to this facility helps them stay healthy.

By leveraging support from organizations and small businesses such as White Pony Express, local Barbers and Hair Salons, HealthRIGHT 360, Golden Hill's Community Outreach Center, Shelter, Inc., Lava Maex, Contra Costa Health Services' CORE Team, and Supportive Services for Veterans, S.H.A.R.E. helps facilitate access to opportunities that come with being clean and helps guests reach optimal levels of success, individually and communally.

Description of what makes initiative/project/program innovative: S.H.A.R.E. is the ONLY consistent, full-service, fully ADA compliant mobile shower program in East Contra Costa County. S.H.A.R.E. envisions our work as the springboard for unhoused people to build confidence, reinforce their human worth, and secure stable housing. S.H.A.R.E. understands this cannot be achieved overnight, however, through consistency and unfettered support. We know our work changes lives and communities!

SOS! Richmond Streets Team

Contact: Daniel Barth

Nominated by: Gayle McLaughlin

Supervisory District: District 1 (Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, part of Pinole, and the unincorporated communities of Bayview, East Richmond Heights, El Sobrante, Kensington, Montalvin Manor, Tara Hills, North Richmond, and Rollingwood)

Description of the innovative initiative/project/program: Richmond has an innovative organization called SOS! Richmond. SOS stands for Safe Organized Spaces. Safe Organized Spaces Richmond has been operational as an essential resource for the city since 2019. It receives universal praise for its as it addresses essential needs among the unhoused that are otherwise unmet. SOS! Richmond is the only organization in Richmond whose mission is centered on workforce development for unhoused individuals who otherwise have the least access to mainstream opportunities. It is the SOS! Streets Team program that I am nominating for this "Innovation" award.

The Streets Team is a unique model that builds and maintains relationships with encampment residents through rooting their work in cultural competencies that can only be provided by peers who have trusted relationships with unsheltered populations. In other words, unhoused people trust other unhoused people, SOS trains and hires Streets Team members from among the unhoused and provides them with responsibilities to do outreach, engagement and stewardship to address street and encampment hotspots and needed services, as well as to help resolve neighborhood complaints. Among their many activities, they remove tons of trash and illegal dumping throughout Richmond on a weekly basis. What started as a staff of 4 diverse Streets Team members in December of 2019 has grown to a staff of 23 as of July of 2021. With new funding provided by the City of Richmond through one of our Reimagining Public Safety initiatives, the SOS! Streets Team will be able to expand to at least 60 and potentially to 100 members very soon (all to be hired from among the unhoused community in Richmond).

SOS! Richmond's Street Team provides hands-on help day in and day out to members of our unhoused community. They improve encampment and neighborhood living conditions through direct service, engagement, advocacy, and collaborations. The impact of their efforts are enormous and they are setting Richmond on course to be an example of a city that cares about its unhoused, steering them into opportunities to lead better and more productive lives and eventually into stable housing.

Description of how the innovative initiative/project/program impacts the lives of people experiencing homelessness:

Our challenges in the midst of this extreme housing crisis era are enormous. It is essential that we address the very real problems that people are facing at the root causes. That means we need to address the needs of unhoused residents and not just push them around from one site to another with no real support as to helping people get a leg up in their lives. Helping people lead dignified lives, as they cope in such difficult situations, takes a certain type of attitude and support. It takes compassion, understanding, patience and a willingness to provide whatever support is needed. Only with such attitudes and real support can a course be carved out toward better quality of life that leads to stable, sustainable and permanent housing. The Streets Team program provides such support.

The difference in people's lives that the SOS! Streets Team had made is enormous - helping support both unhoused residents and neighbors throughout the city that are impacted. Unsheltered people are employed on the Streets Teams to respond to neighborhood problems such as illegal dumping. Streets Team staff serve as land stewards and role models, and engage in continuous community engagement with encampment residents. This work benefits both the community and the workers.

Here is a quote from one of the Streets Team members;

"I help run the showers, and work on the streets team on Friday. This is my first actual job with a regular paycheck. I like the people I work with, and it's great having a job. I make $15.50 an hour. " - Sasha Allen, encampment resident and SOS employee

SOS operates a mobile shower trailer, staffed by unsheltered people, which brings hygiene and other necessities to people at various locations across West County on a rotating basis.

Below is a quote from another SOS Streets Team member:

"I love helping people get showers. Some people told me they haven't had a shower in 8 months. One man told me he wasn't sure he could walk as far as the shower trailer, so I pushed him there in his wheelchair." - Buddy Bennett, encampment resident and SOS employee

SOS! Richmond also provides and maintains low-cost portable hand-washing stations at encampment locations, filling an immediate and high priority request from residents. SOS partners with public and private entities to provide portable toilets, trash removal, and other essential sanitation services.

Below is a quote from an encampment resident who receives benefit from having such water, sanitation and hygiene available for her and her husband, both seniors struggling with homelessness.

"We sleep in our truck in the front seat. We're both on social security. We don't make enough money to consider buying or renting anything. We just want someplace where we can cook, have running water and use the restroom." - Amilee Smith, encampment resident

Description of what makes initiative/project/program innovative:

Daniel Barth is the Director of SOS! Richmond. He has 35 years of experience working with homeless populations. He directs the development and operation of the Streets Team for daytime encampment and neighborhood engagement and provision of basic amenities, and for nighttime neighborhood responses related to public safety and quality of life issues. Thanks to Daniel's leadership and that of others associated with SOS! Richmond, unhoused people are employed in the Streets Team with zero incomes, with the majority of the staff reporting that this is the first job they have held in decades, sometimes the first in their lives. We are so lucky to have this exciting model of transforming people's lives alive and well in Richmond!

Ady Olvera

Nominated by: Laura Nakamura

Supervisory District: District 4 (Clayton, Concord, Pleasant Hill, part of Walnut Creek, and the unincorporated Contra Costa Centre)

Nominee's outstanding volunteer service: Concord Communities Alliance would like to nominate one of our own for the "Outstanding Volunteer" award. Our nominee is a resident of Concord who has been actively raising awareness of the issue of homelessness in Contra Costa County, and very specifically in Concord. Her focus on this issue intensified immediately at the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic when shelters were shut down and fears that unsheltered communities would become super spreader death camps. She has been an outstanding volunteer leader in efforts to ease living conditions for homeless residents of Concord and Central Contra Costa. She has worked with tenacity, humility, and thoroughness to organize residents for specific policy proposals and direct their collective energy efficiently towards local government officials. She has very appropriately made a point of seeking the involvement of homeless residents themselves and ensuring that their knowledge and priorities are reflected in advocacy.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: She has worked tirelessly to bring the community groups, faith-based organizations, and residents together to push for concrete, long term solutions for the benefit for the whole community. She has also been instrumental in raising the voices of those experiencing homelessness to ensure they are heard and validated during the process.

Concord Communities Alliance values her tenacity. Through her leadership she has organized meetings, pod casts, live-streaming interviews with law enforcement and city leaders. She co- led efforts to organized community meetings and help CCA facilitate a stakeholder forum with over 50 attendees from city, county and community groups. She has acted as an encampment sweep observer to witness and document the treatment of the unhoused as they are uprooted. She has collaboratively led the CCA Housing and Homelessness Action Team and has involved several unhoused individuals in the conversations and recognizes that the voices of those most impacted must be elevated.

Our nominee has been a constant presence in the effort to uplift the voices of low-income communities, unhoused communities, communities of color, and other underrepresented folks in Concord and beyond. She works to make spaces accessible for everyone and makes sure that people feel welcome and seen so they are comfortable sharing their stories and working towards community solutions. She is willing to meet the unhoused where they are today. When she hears that someone is sick or hungry, she reaches out to all those she knows and responds generously. So while she is organizing to meet the long term needs of the unhoused, she is present to do what she can for their immediate needs.

She has always ensured that we meet our unhoused neighbors where they are and as they are, find ways to hear from them directly in meetings, to truly help them meet their needs. With the full support and involvement of many members of Concord Communities Alliance, she has been doing some amazing and challenging work with raising awareness and bringing people together to elevate this issue. She is brave and persistent. We are proud to nominate Ady Olvera for the Outstanding Volunteer award.

Antwon Clorid

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: I have followed Antwon Clorid's volunteerism for a decade. I have personally witnessed him feeding the homeless, getting homeless people into shelters and being enrolled into successful drug and alcohol recovery programs here in Richmond, CA. I have witnessed because of both his passion & activism have truly changed homeless peoples lives and landscape. Antwon Clorid truly believes in empowering the less fortunate individuals in society. Even with restricted access to our programs due to health precautions, the group continued to provide celebrations for the families at our Mt. View Family Shelter, and organized in-kind drives.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: The children, and adults, at Mountain View Family Shelter were challenged during the pandemic to keep themselves entertained and engaged. Without the extra financial resources to invest in at-home entertainment, the special occasions set up for them by Boys Team Charity made a huge impact on helping these families feel connected to the world and gave them hope for a brighter future.

I am sure that everyone who knows about Jack, cares about the unhoused and follows his posts values his work, because they value people. Jack invests a huge amount of time and money in getting up in the middle of the night, preparing meals and driving around delivering them and connecting with those he helps.

Denise Mills

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness:

Working with JJCC there are some youths that become homeless when they are released so we try to get them as much referrals as possible, they are led to reentry programs that assist with housing, employment, and education. Being someone who was homeless at one time in my life, the tarmac issues that come with homelessness can be quite overwhelming. I can relate. So I commit to helping the homeless, knowing how lost and afraid the journey can be. I had to figure out where the help was going to come from, now that I have those tools, I can be a great help to those that are homeless. by giving incite oh how to obtain housing and to stay permanently housed. This Nominee is a Team Player has encouraged both co-workers as well as the youth she works with. She has a GREAT compassion the work she does.

Meredith Fleming at St. John Missionary Baptist Church

Nominated by: Nicole Jones

Supervisory District: District 1 (Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, part of Pinole, and the unincorporated communities of Bayview, East Richmond Heights, El Sobrante, Kensington, Montalvin Manor, Tara Hills, North Richmond, and Rollingwood)

Nominee's outstanding volunteer service: This lady is the true epitome of volunteerism. Meredith Fleming comes to our organization-Greater Richmond Interfaith Program (GRIP) every weekday to help in the kitchen or wherever she is needed. Her church group used to cook lunch every 3rd Thursday for our homeless consumers and the residents, but once the pandemic started, the group couldn't come due to the closure of our kitchen for outsiders. The group consisted of elderly women, so of course seniors were being told to stay home.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: She comes and helps make sandwiches, put together lunches, chop vegetables, put together hygiene kits, helps sort and pass out the mail, mops floors, wipes tables and gives us a little kick in butt when we need it. She serves in the kindest way with a smile that makes anyone going through the food line return a smile even if they are having a bad day. She comes in every day with a smile and a story about her grand kids or her children. She is motivated and motivates others. She will have her say if something is out of order and will work to make it right. She is a problem solver and is full of life.

Robert Gregory

Nominated by: Irma Gregory

Supervisory District: District 3 (Bethel Island, Blackhawk, Byron, Diablo, Discovery Bay and Knightsen, as well as the cities of Antioch, Brentwood, and Oakley)

Nominee's outstanding volunteer service: The nominee is Robert Gregory. He has been volunteering since the first wave of COVID. He goes above and beyond to enrich the lives of people who are less fortunate than him. He dedicated his efforts to serve a community of homeless people in downtown Antioch (the area around the Amtrak station). Every Thursday and sometimes on the weekends (or when it is needed or asked for by the homeless people) he brings food, toiletries, clothes, and other necessities to take care of the people in this area. Being a part of a church, he not only tries to take care of the physical needs of the homeless people in Antioch, but also provide them with spiritual healing and hope.

He demonstrates an exemplary commitment to serve the interests of homeless people by preparing nutritious food with the produce that he buys himself: meaty soups (the favorite among the "regulars"), pasta salads, baked potatoes with toppings, etc. He treats these people as his family. He worries that the food stays hot when needed or that these people have a variety in what they eat as they already struggle so much. When it gets hot, he brings light clothes bought at the Goodwill store in Brentwood, when it gets cold – he looks for jackets and sweaters for these people. To help them to cope with rain, he buys tarp covers for them.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: Robert and people with whom he serves usually feed about 20 homeless people in downtown Antioch (and people in need who just come to the tables where he serves) on every Thursday. He makes sure that the people there have decent food. Sometimes when he runs out of food that he prepared and someone approaches him and says that s/he is hungry he goes to the store or the nearest fast food place to buy meals. Every time he is there he asks what is needed (Band-Aids, ointments, baby wipes, shampoos, etc.) and delivers it next Thursday.

You might want to ask the "regulars" – John, Greg, Kim, Wendy, and many other homeless people about his outstanding efforts to keep these people fed and ready for the weather conditions, not to mention showing them that they are not alone in this struggle, that there are people who care about them. Many of the homeless people have dogs and cats as their companions – they treasure them more than a chance to have a free temporary housing – Robert takes care of them too by providing food and other things. These homeless people in the downtown Antioch value his work because he contributes to their physical and mental survival. He knows that nearly all of them are struggling with some kind of addiction: he accepts it and tries to find resources to help them. Drugs give these homeless people a way to escape the hush reality, Robert tries to make this reality better for them. He comes not to “solve all their problems”, but he comes to hear them and to help them.

RR Ministries

Contact: Sandro Trujillo

St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Walnut Creek

Contact: Rustin Comer

Nominated by: Leslie Gleason

Supervisory District: District 4 (Clayton, Concord, Pleasant Hill, part of Walnut Creek, and the unincorporated Contra Costa Centre)

Nominee's outstanding volunteer service: The Trinity Center Crew of St. Matthew Lutheran Church in Walnut Creek has devoted over six years to ensuring that persons experiencing homelessness or living in poverty enjoy a delicious, healthy lunchtime meal. Each week, the St. Matt's volunteers have planned the lunch, bought groceries, prepared and served the meal, creating supportive relationships with our unhoused neighbors. Even when COVID curtailed their ability to be onsite, the Lunch Crew made arrangements to prepare the meal in their commercial kitchen and deliver it hot and ready-to-serve. Knowing that hunger doesn't take a holiday, they have provided Safeway gift cards for members on the Friday before each legal holiday, and during the winter holidays, provide generous gift cards accompanied by notes and cards of warm wishes to brighten the lives of those served at Trinity Center. Over the six year history of Trinity Center's winter Evening Program overnight shelter, St. Matthew volunteers have hosted shelter participants at their complex when the usual Armory location has been unavailable, welcoming them with meals, entertainment, and companionship. For their long-standing and meaningful support for individuals facing homelessness, we are proud to nominate The Trinity Center Crew of St. Matthew Church.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: By providing for people's basic needs in the form of hot, delicious, healthy meals, prepared and served with compassion, this group of nominees demonstrate that the community cares about unhoused and vulnerable people. Every member who has enjoyed their meals, chatted over lunch with a St. Matt's volunteer, or enjoyed their holiday "shopping spree" compliments of the entire congregation knows what a difference their service makes. Knowing that we can count on St. Matthews volunteers in so many concrete ways is deeply valuable to the staff of Trinity Center, and they are always open to exploring new ways to help Trinity Center and our members enjoy a vibrant life and build a path forward.

Stan Fleury

Nominated by: Nicole Jones

Supervisory District: District 1 (Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, part of Pinole, and the unincorporated communities of Bayview, East Richmond Heights, El Sobrante, Kensington, Montalvin Manor, Tara Hills, North Richmond, and Rollingwood)

Nominee's outstanding volunteer service: Stan Fleury is our "Volunteer Extraordinaire." He came to our organization-Greater Richmond Interfaith Program (GRIP) as an IT consultant helping us get our computer and phone systems updated--a much needed revamping. However, since then, he has been with us performing maintenance tasks, completing work orders so we didn't have to hire other contractors, painted shelter rooms, replaced doors, locks, shelving, set up camera's for our facility, helped find resources for free laptops, being a liaison and assistance with contracts and grants. This "Volunteer Extraordinaire" has jumped in performing all these services donating both his time and his personal money.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness:

Because we are a non-profit homeless shelter for families with children, all the services he provides us for free enables us to use our current funding on our program services we provide to the community. We value his work, and his assistance with anything we ask of him. He has helped make changes to some of our program processes and procedures to enable us to better serve our homeless consumers.

Stan Fleury is an all around good guy and he loves to give back to the community. We appreciate and thank him for all his hard work.

Vanessa Calloway

Nominated by: Michelle Milam

Supervisory District: District 1 (Richmond, San Pablo, El Cerrito, part of Pinole, and the unincorporated communities of Bayview, East Richmond Heights, El Sobrante, Kensington, Montalvin Manor, Tara Hills, North Richmond, and Rollingwood)

Nominee's outstanding volunteer service: Vanessa Calloway and her project "Way to Love" has been volunteering in the Richmond community assisting the unhoused population with hot meals, clothing, and basic needs.

The difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness:

Vanessa is a deeply caring and committed person to the needs of the unhoused community in Richmond, CA. She has utilized her own personal resources, resources from the faith community and other volunteers to serve people in Richmond with hot meals, resources, basic needs, clothing and other items.

Richmond was hit hard by the pandemic, and aftermath like many cities. The city has a large population of unhoused folks that need support. Vanessa can be counted on each weekend with her team to go out and see the need and fill it. What is also inspiring is that in a time when many have concerns she turns that concern into action, or as Vanessa calls it "Way to Love".

Vanessa's inspiration and positivity is infectious. Our police officers have come off duty to help, as well as many community members. She has a special place in her heart for young people and has been able through her efforts to impact youth who fall through the cracks of the system.

There are many people who volunteer, but not many people who treat everyone as if they are the family. That is what people will tell you about Vanessa - she makes us feel like family. You would be hard pressed to find a more resourceful example of love in action.

Rick Johnson, Cemel Industries, LLC

Contact: Rick Johnson

Nominated by: Kristine Nishi

Supervisory District: District 4 (Clayton, Concord, Pleasant Hill, part of Walnut Creek, and the unincorporated Contra Costa Centre)

Description of nominee's outstanding contribution to ending homelessness:

Property manager/owner, Mr. Rick Johnson, has been working with the HUD-VASH team at Martinez VA for about 10 years (as far as I remember). He/Cemel Industries LLC has multiple properties in Martinez and Concord areas, mainly located in Martinez. Mr. Johnson has rented to many of our homeless Veterans/families that we were trying to help house with a HUD-VASH voucher. Mr. Johnson at least has put over 20 Vets in his properties without checking their credits as he understands that most homeless Vets probably do not have good credits. He has many units located in the convenient areas in Martinez. Mr. Johnson ensures that all the units are up to health and safety codes.

Difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: As I mentioned above, Mr. Johnson is willing to work with the HUD-VASH team taking our homeless Vets without checking their credits. Our homeless Vets who are housed by Mr. Johnson have many health, substance use and mental health issues. Mr. Johnson is working with our team/case managers closely to stabilize and maintain their housing. He understands that if our Vets lose their housing, it would be very likely that they will become homeless again. Mr. Johnson has expressed in multiple occasions to me and other teammates that he does not want to see our housed Vets losing their housing and becoming homeless again. He has gone extra miles to work with VA/HUD-VASH and housing authority to keep our Vets in his rentals, including putting extra money and efforts for repairs, accepting and being patient with Vets' special needs (one of my Vets who has severe paranoid is verbally abusive to Mr. Johnson).

Mr. Johnson has evolved over the years, and has become more and more empathetic to our homeless Vets. He even commented that it is probably because he is getting older. When our Vets did not pay their rent, his comment was, "Oh, well it's just money, right?" I took it as a kind act even though he was probably feeling the pain of not receiving the rent. Our Vets have many high needs who are housed with him, including active using, CPS involvement, serious health issues/dementia, and so on. He is working with our team closely to keep a roof over our Vets' heads. He continues to give our homeless Vets priority to be housed in his properties even though he has had many challenging Vets from our team.

Rick Johnson, Cemel Industries, LLC

Contact: Rick Johnson

Nominated by: Hannah Frank

Supervisory District: District 5 (Hercules, Martinez, Pittsburg, portions of Pinole and Antioch, and unincorporated communities of Alhambra Valley, Bay Point, Briones, Rodeo, Pacheco, Crockett, Tormey, Port Costa, Mt. View, Vine Hill, Reliez Valley, and Clyde)

Description of nominee's outstanding contribution to ending homelessness: Rick Johnson is a landlord who has worked with our VA HUD-VASH program here in Contra Costa County for about a decade. Over the years, Rick has worked tirelessly with the VASH program to not only rent to homeless Veterans, but to keep his Veteran tenants housed. Rick is currently renting to approximately 20, formerly homeless Veterans now. Over the years, Rick has worked with dozens more.

Difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: Rick Johnson understands the complex barriers facing our Veterans and homeless populations in general. He is patient, flexible, and understands there may be more to a person seeking housing than what shows in their background. Rick is proactive and genuinely concerned for our Veterans, often reaching out to VA VASH staff if he worries for a Veteran's wellbeing. Some of our Veterans who have struggled the most with independent living due to complex, psychosocial stressors have maintained their rentals with Rick because of his extra care, support, and patience. Our VA HUD-VASH program and Veterans who have completed their journey out of homelessness with Rick's support are forever grateful. This nomination for Rick Johnson is from Hannah Frank, Kristine Nishi, James Cherry, Ryan Normandy, and Laura Rasmussen of the VA's HUD-VASH program.

Roberto LLC

Contact: Roberto LLC

Nominated by: Anthony Arasa

Supervisory District: They serve the entire county

Description of nominee's outstanding contribution to ending homelessness:

Roberto LLC understands the Housing First model. "Let's get them in and provide support to assist in their stability and transition to affordable housing if they desire or they can stay here as long as they like", is what was shared in our first meet and greet with Roberto LLC's Site Manager George Roberto. Roberto LLC has been in Contra Costa for several years now providing clean, affordable and a beautiful shared living environment for those that desire a community of care.

Difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: Roberto LLC creates a space of housing in their own rooms; rent that's negotiable to help the individuals get stable and thrive in their environment. They understand the limited incomes and generously work with each individual to create a plan that is sustainable for both themselves and their partners residing in their homes...What's great about Roberto LLC's properties are some of their homes have wheelchair ramps, grab bars in the bathrooms, enough space for the partners to move around in their walkers, that's huge for the elderly or mobility impaired that need that additional support in their living environment. Just thankful for the staff and home managers that provide compassion and empathy for those residing in the Roberto LLC homes.

Nominated by: Debbie Toth

Supervisory District: They serve the entire county

Description of nominee's outstanding contribution to ending homelessness:

Satellite Affordable Housing Associates (SAHA) has 4 projects in Contra Costa County with units set aside for chronically homeless seniors (12), families that meet Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) criteria (10), and voluntarily added a leasing preference to prioritize seniors experiencing homelessness at a HUD subsidized for 14 units. SAHA partners closely with Coordinated Entry System and Health Housing and Homeless to provide services and create new units. Veterans Square is under construction now and will be a 100% Permanent Supportive Housing for Veterans Assisted Supportive Housing and No Place Like Home populations.

SAHA and Choice in Aging have worked together since 2017 at the senior affordable housing, Tabora Gardens, in Antioch. The quality of the units, community spaces, and property grounds are outstanding. There are community gardens where residents grow fresh produce, walking paths, computer labs, a lounge, and transportation services. In this project, SAHA built a community of residents from very diverse backgrounds and experiences in a way that honored all of them. When challenges arise, SAHA is right there to partner and solve complicated problems through understanding their residents and their unique needs.

Difference that the Nominee's service makes to individuals facing homelessness: SAHA is providing the highest quality of units, community amenities, and services because they believe that each resident deserves dignity, autonomy, and access to opportunities. They partner well and advocate with a clear voice. SAHA is positively impacting the lives of the residents who live at their buildings, and setting a standard for quality housing that everyone deserves.

Over the last eight years, I have had the incredible fortune of getting to know some of our amazing Bay Area nonprofit housing developers through our endeavor to create an Aging in Place Campus and through our work most recently doing mobile vaccine clinics for at risk populations. While all seem to be mission driven outstanding agencies, SAHA stood out to me for a variety of reasons. First and foremost, they had a staff person dedicated to understanding and creating opportunities to meet the needs of residents that go beyond housing. There was a fundamental knowledge that housing alone won't keep someone housed - particularly populations that are elder or have previously been without housing. So they set out to create support systems that ensured gaps were filled proactively such as transportation, care management, access to food and so much more. For this and a variety of other reasons, Choice in Aging chose to partner with them to change the future of aging in our state.
