We are looking at changing County job classifications to reflect certification and provide career opportunities. 		Empowerment)
7. Public Comment & Suggestions for Future Agenda Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (Roberto Roman) Consider future CPAW meetings to be hybrid (Zoom and in person) meetings. (Dr. Suzanne Tavano) The State COVID Emergency provisions come to an end in February. Commissions and Boards would be required to go to a hybrid meeting format. A location provided for physical presence. CPAW is not a Board or Commission. Will receive guidance from our County Administrative Officer. (Jennifer Bruggeman) We will be physically present at Crestwood for the PADs (Psychiatric Advance Directive) program. Getting to know and working with the new staff at Crestwood now. • (Douglas Dunn) How soon discussions start for Care Court? (Dr. Suzanne Tavano) Start planning in 2023, start in 2024. 		Mark Mora
8. Plus / Delta – Review of Meeting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (Douglas Dunn) To Roberto Roman for the excellent update on SB 803. Outstanding MHSA Community Forum presentation. • (Roberto Roman) Appreciation to the MHSA Team for all their hard work with the Community Forums and providing the information and summaries.
